

Aldo's

“As my guide... I chose a noble entrepreneur, the marchese Aldo Sersale. Who would have thought that this gentleman in his seventies, who still dives into the sea like a pro, could conjure up from one moment to the next an amazing, simple, unrepeatable feast on his boat? Thick slices of mozzarella di bufala oozing milk, firm red tomatoes with their seeds scooped out, basil leaves so big they might have come from the tropics... and that volatile, deliciously dry spumante that flowed like life, like memory...”

Paolo Guzzanti, La Repubblica, August 1985.

One of four siblings who turned their Positano home into a hotel in 1951, Aldo Sersale was an aristocratic bon viveur, a man who was passionate about Positano, who adored the sun, the sea, women, food and wine. Aldo knew that the best things in life are often the simplest. In a glass of vintage champagne, a platter of oysters with a squeeze of Amalfi Coast lemons, a sapid Caprese salad, a fresh-off-the-boat seafood carpaccio or a selection of time-honoured Italian classics done with a minimum of fuss, Aldo's Cocktail Bar & Seafood Grill pays homage to the spirit, and the memory, of zio Aldo.
